

Join the PTA and be a voice for your child!

An active parent and teacher community is a vital part of a thriving school. We ask each teacher and parent to participate in our efforts for the 2011-2012 school year.

What does the Greenbelt Elementary Parent Teacher Association Do?

The PTA promotes many enriching school activities, sponsors events and field trips, provides the school with books, art and recess supplies, and advocates policies that benefit our children. There are many ways in which you can make a difference, come to a PTA meeting to learn how you can become involved in your child's education.

Return this form with your payment to your child's teacher, the PTA table at an event, or bring it to a meeting!
