

Dear involved citizens of Greenbelt,

Summer is once again upon us, and the Greenbelt Labor Day Festival Committee has begun planning for the 2007 Labor Day fair. This will be the Festival's 53rd year, and it already promises to be one of the most innovative and inspired years of its existence. This year the festival has a wide range of entertainment from the Hubcaps, to various children's activities like a puppet show and clowns, and a county wide battle of the bands expected to be one of the highlights of the weekend. There will also be the traditional favorites such as the Miss Greenbelt pageant and the annual art and photo shows.

As an involved leader in Maryland we need your help in making this year a success. In preceding years your donations have assisted us to provide materials, trophies, and prizes for the festivals scheduled events. In addition to your contribution being recognized on the official Labor Day website (with the option of a link to your business), your donations will also be recognized in the Greenbelt "News Review" insert, plus there are sponsorship options for all events. *(Please see below for contact information).

Proposed donations:

Contributor: 50.00

Supporter: 75.00

Sponsor: 100.00

Patron: 175.00

(5.00$ per additional word)

Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Please make checks payable to Greenbelt Labor Day Festival Committee, Inc. Send to Box no. 2 Greenbelt, MD 20770. It is preferable that all donations made be received by August 1st.
